PROFILE OF PETER VASSILOPOULOS.

In 1972, Peter and his new bride, Carla, left his native South Africa and his career in Radio and TV, on a worldwide odyssey. After traveling in Europe they arrived in Carla's hometown of Vancouver. Once Peter saw this boaters' "Sea of Eden", the Odyssey was over. Almost immediately Peter began writing for Pacific Yachting, an association that has lasted over 30 years. Two years later, Peter founded "Diver" magazine, which was sold two years ago to Phil Nuyetten and he is the Nuyetsuit man. In 1994, Peter published "Docks and Destinations", followed shortly by "Anchorages". More recently Peter published "North of Desolation Sound". Peter has kindly agreed to give a talk at the Squadron AGM on April 8th at the Airport Yacht Club. The title of his talk will be "A birds' Eye View of the Gulf Islands". His talk will be illustrated with pictures from his upcoming book on the Gulf Islands, which will be published shortly. The launching ceremony will be held in Richmond at the end of April or early May. Peter has kindly invited members of the Fraser Squadron to attend the launch and have an opportunity to buy his new book before it is available in the stores.

Peter and Carla will bring some of his published books to the Auction.

It is hoped that many members of the Squadron will take advantage of this opportunity to listen to such a well-known author.
